U.P.S.C.

प्रश्न संख्या (Question No.)

इस भाग में कुछ न लिखें (Don't write anything in this part)

Q The Direct benefit transfer scheme has produced a great impact in improving Social welfare in India. Discuss

The Direct benefit transfer scheme is a scheme in which ~~direct~~ transferring subsidies launched by Govt. of India on 1 January 2013. ~~In which~~ This scheme or program aims to direct transfer of money or subsidies to the people account through Aadhar linked bank account.

IMF's fiscal affairs department praised this scheme & president of world Bank Group also urged to other nations to adopt this scheme.

Great Impact in Improving Social welfare

i) India managed to provide food or cash support to 85% of rural households & 69% of urban households.

2) following program are part of DBT
i) National child labour project
ii) student scholarship
iii) LPG subsidy.

प्रश्न संख्या (Question No.)

U.P.S.C.

इस भाग में कुछ न लिखें (Don't write anything in this part)

3) people gain direct social facility.

4) People improve purchasing power

5) Bring transparency & terminating pilferage

6) Govt to reach out to both citizens & beneficiaries of the scheme at the same time.

7) No chances of frauds system.

8) Improved living standards of the people.

9) Increase Accountibility.

There are 317 schemes under DBT

1) Pradhan Mantri fasal bima yojna
2) National food security mission
3) National Livestock Mission
4) Atal pension yojna.

1) Pradhan Mantri fasal bima yojna

Pradhan Mantri fasal bima yojna is to provide insurance coverage & financial support to the farmers.

प्रश्न संख्या (Question No.)

U.P.S.C.

इस भाग में कुछ न लिखें (Don't write anything in this part)

2) National food security program →

In This 75% of rural population & 50% of the urban population to receive subsidies foodgrains & target public distribution system.

3) Atal pension yojna - is a govt. backed pension scheme & targeted at the unorganised sector. & provided pension to senior citizens.

DBT scheme give benefits to the citizens - so it is an important scheme for India. & through this it will improve citizens social life & social welfare in India