प्रश्न संख्या (Question No.)

U.P.S.C.

इस भाग में कुछ न लिखें (Don't write anything in this part)

Q1 India's presidency of the G20, SCO & UNSC is a historic opportunity for reinventing the United Nations. Explain?

United nations is one place where all the world's nation discuss problems & give them solutions

World's problems

→ World is in big trouble
→ Gridlocked in colossal global dysfunction
→ G20 is in the trap of geopolitics divides
→ Multilateralism is in under challenge

1) where U.S.A, China, Russia not on a single platform, like in G7 summit held in June where discussion on climate change U.S.A or developed countries promised to pay 100 billion dollars still it is unfulfilled.

2) China is making multilateral institutions like Belt & road initiatives, to connecting more countries for their own economic purposes.

प्रश्न संख्या (Question No.)

U.P.S.C.

इस भाग में कुछ न लिखें (Don't write anything in this part)

3) Clashes of powers between U.S.A, China Russia - Ukraine The world is divided & everyone want to increase their hegemony.

India will take presidency in UNSC on december month, & have opportunity in SCO, G20.

India can do

i) India can use the formula of "Vasudhaiva Kutumbakam"

↳ all are equal world is one family.

2) India raise the issues of climate change where many countries not focusing, & India itself implemented many steps to controll climate

3) Use universal civilisation principle

4) Re-defining common concern rather than interests & concern of the powerfull will

प्रश्न संख्या
(Question No.)

U.P.S.C.

इस भाग में कुछ न लिखें
(Don't write anything in this part)

5) It's time to focus on global issues, provide ~~well welfair~~ welfare, aid, safety, security, technologies, research & development.

India has an opportunity to fulfill or will cover all this disputes or issues in the upcoming summits. India always use its soft power or now its time to use this soft power or grasp this opportunity.