Commodity Exchanges

- Securities and Exchange Board of India (SEBI) directed commodity exchanges to disclose the turnover of various categories of participants like farmers, farmer producer organisations (FPOs), domestic financial institutional investors etc.,
- The commodity market is a physical or virtual marketplace for buying, selling and trading raw or primary products.

- Commodities are split into two types: hard and soft commodities.
- Hard commodities are typically natural resources that must be mined or extracted (such as gold, rubber and oil),
- Soft commodities are agricultural products or livestock (such as corn, wheat, coffee, sugar, soybeans and pork)
- A commodities exchange is a legal entity that determines and enforces rules and procedures for the trading standardized commodity contracts and related investment products.
- Commodities exchange also refers to the physical centre where trading takes place.
