Anti-Ragging Measures in India

Why in news?

Recently, an 18 year old student was dead in Jadavpur University due to ragging.

What is defined as “ragging”?

- Ragging is defined as an act that involves an activity violating the dignity of a student.
- Ragging is done in the name of fresher’s welcome i.e. shows that what extent a person or human imagination can fall to prove his supremacy
- It includes any act
 - That generates a sense of shame, torment or embarrassment adversely affecting the physique or psyche of a student.
 - That affects the mental health and self-confidence of any student.
 - That would prevent, disrupts or disturbs the regular academic activity of any student
 - Of financial extortion or forceful expenditure burden put on other students by students
 - Of physical abuse, sexual abuse, homosexual assaults, stripping, forcing obscene and lewd acts, gestures, causing any kind of bodily harm or any other danger to health or person.

According to a survey in the year 2017, about 40% of India's students had to face some form of ragging and bullying, of which medical and engineering colleges reported the most.

What are steps taken by government against ragging?

- Unny committee- It was formed by University Grants Commission (UGC) to examine and submit a report on ragging.
- It put forward a Prohibition, Prevention and Punishment proposal.
- Central and state governments should enact laws against ragging.
- It suggested punishments ranging from fines to rigorous imprisonment of up to 3 years.
- Measures that can be taken includes
 - Sensitisation against ragging
 - Incentivizing wardens and students for their good conduct and anti-ragging activities.

- Institutions failing to curb ragging should be disaffiliated.

University Grants Commission (UGC) is a statutory body set up under UGC Act 1956 under the Ministry of Education.

What is the Supreme Court's stand on ragging?

- In 2001, the Supreme Court banned ragging across India.
- Guidelines- Setting up proctoral committees to prevent ragging and internally address complaints against ragging.
- Ragging if it becomes unmanageable or amounts to a cognizable offence the same may be reported to the police.
- R K Raghavan committee- It was appointed by Supreme Court in 2006 to suggest means and methods to prevent ragging.
- possible action that can be taken against persons/institutions that indulge/ fail to curb ragging
- Its recommendations were subsequently formalised by the UGC.

What are the guidelines specified by UGC?

- UGC adopted guidelines in 2009 under "The Regulations on Curbing the Menace of Ragging in Higher Educational Institutions".
- Definition- It includes 9 explanations of what could constitute ragging.
- Institutional level- UGC requires universities to take measures for prevention of ragging.
- Universities must require students to sign an undertaking that they will not engage in ragging activities.
- The institution shall set up appropriate committees, including the course-incharge, student advisor, wardens and some senior students as its members.
- If found guilty by the anti-ragging committee, then any member of the committee may proceed to file a First Information Report (FIR) within 24 hours of receipt of such information.
- Helpline- Anti Ragging helpline is available in 12 languages for helping victims of ragging.
- Anti-Ragging Website - <https://www.antiragging.in/> portal contains the record of registered complaints received and the status of the action taken thereon.
- Awareness- All the educational institutions in the country observe August 12-18 as anti-ragging week.

What does the law say about ragging?

In 1997, Tamil Nadu became the first state where ragging was completely banned.

- Prohibition of Ragging Act 1997- Ragging is defined as “any disorderly conduct whether by words spoken or written or by an act which has the effect of teasing, treating or handling with rudeness a fresher or any other student”.
- Section 339 of IPC- It criminalises the offence as wrongful restraint.
- Wrongful restraint is an offence when a person is prevented from proceeding in any direction in which that person has a right to proceed.
- Section 340 of IPC- It criminalises wrongful confinement which is defined as wrongfully restraining any person in such a manner as to prevent that person from proceedings beyond certain circumscribing limits.
- Separate regulations - All India Council for Technical Education (AICTE) and the Medical Council of India have made their own regulations under their respective acts.
