

CPEC and the Baloch Insurgency

Click here for CPEC Part I and here for Part II

\n\n

What is the issue?

\n\n

\n

- The CPEC is a 15-year project between Pakistan and China, which aims to connect the ancient Chinese trading town Kashgar with Pakistan's deep-sea Gwadar port via PoK through a network of highways, railways and oil and gas pipelines and fibre optic cables.

\n

- Gwadar is the crown jewel of CPEC and Balochistan is the home to Gwadar port.

\n

- Yet Balochistan stands to gain little from the massive project, despite being in desperate need of economic opportunity.

\n

- The province's share in the CPEC is a mere 0.5%.

\n

\n\n

What are the administrative units of Pakistan?

\n\n

The administrative units of Pakistan consist of four provinces, one federal capital territory, two autonomous and disputed territories, and a group of federally administered tribal areas.

\n\n

| # | Subdivision | Capital | Type |
|---|-------------------------------------|--------------|-------------------------------|
| 1 | Balochistan | Quetta | Province |
| 2 | Khyber Pakhtunkhwa | Peshawar | Province |
| 3 | Punjab | Lahore | Province |
| 4 | Sindh | Karachi | Province |
| 5 | Islamabad Capital Territory | Islamabad | Territory |
| 6 | Federally Administered Tribal Areas | Islamabad | Territory |
| 7 | Azad Jammu and Kashmir | Muzaffarabad | Pakistan-administered Kashmir |
| 8 | Gilgit-Baltistan | Gilgit | Province |

\n\n

Who are Baloch people?

\n\n

\n

- Baloch people are an ethno-linguistic group mainly found in Pakistan, Iran and Afghanistan.

\n

- Balochistan region covers Balochistan Province in southwestern Pakistan, Sistan and Baluchestan Province in southeastern Iran, and the Balochistan region of southern Afghanistan.

\n

- Baloch nationalism is a movement that claims the Baloch people in the region form a distinct nation.

\n

- The movement propagates the view that Muslims are not a nation and that ethnic loyalty must surpass religious loyalty

\n

- The Insurgency in Balochistan is a guerrilla war waged by Baloch nationalists against the governments of Pakistan and Iran in the region.

\n

\n\n

What is the reason for insurgency?

\n\n

- \n
- 70% of people in Balochistan live in poverty.
- \n
- The maternal death rate in Pakistan is 278 per 100,000, whereas in Balochistan it stands at 785.
- \n
- Natural gas was discovered at Sui in Balochistan, yet major parts of the province are still deprived of natural gas.
- \n
- It's important to understand that the violence in Balochistan is not just because of terrorism.
- \n
- The insurgents are mostly local people longing for their constitutional rights and welfare.
- \n
- Therefore most of the insurgent movements in Balochistan have been linked with deprivation and underdevelopment.
- \n

\n\n

- \n
- The division of CPEC benefits repeats the same mistake, where the people of Balochistan are not allowed to benefit from the province's own advantages.
- \n

\n\n

What is the problem in Pakistan's approach?

\n\n

- \n
- Pakistan's government has generally regarded Brahamdagh Bugti, the alleged leader-in-exile of the Baloch Republican Army, as the sole representative of the Baloch conflict, particularly pointing to Bugti's India-centric policy.
- \n
- Also Indian Prime Minister Narendra Modi made remarks on Balochistan last year.
- \n
- Therefore the Pakistani government and military officials tend to blame the violence in Balochistan on Indian meddling in the province.

\n

- But to truly solve the problems in Balochistan, Pakistan's focus must be inward.

\n

\n\n

What should be done?

\n\n

\n

- The state needs to differentiate sub-nationalists from the terrorist outfits operating from within Balochistan.
- \n
- Terrorist organisations need to be dealt with accordingly as per the national counterterrorism strategies.
- \n
- But the Sub-national groups should be encouraged to come into the national fold by addressing legitimate concerns.
- \n
- If the violence still gets out of hand, then counter-insurgency (COIN) strategies can be employed.
- \n
- The guilty should be subject to normal court proceedings.
- \n
- Media coverage in the region should be increased rather than the current situation of reporters going missing from Balochistan.
- \n
- Pakistani authorities must ensure that CPEC doesn't repeat the earlier injustice meted out to the native Balochs. Balochistan must get its fair share of the economic corridor.
