

Lessons from ASEAN for SAARC

What is the issue?

\n\n

∖n

- Both SAARC and ASEAN took birth with almost similar aspirations.  $\ensuremath{\sc vn}$
- While ASEAN celebrates its 50th year, being largely successful, the SAARC has remained stagnated.  $\n$

\n\n

Why has SAARC stagnated?

\n\n

∖n

- Cooperation The political animosity and military conflict between India and Pakistan have disturbed the regional cooperation.  $\n$
- This witnessed a new low when India boycotted the 19th SAARC summit in Pakistan, as a result of the Uri terrorist attack.
- Subsequently the summit was cancelled with Bangladesh, Afghanistan and Bhutan following India's stance.  $\n$
- Trade Trade amongst the SAARC members stands only at 3.5% of their total volume of trade.

\n

• Initiatives under the South Asian Free Trade Association have failed to make much headway.

∖n

- Sub-regional initiatives like the BBIN Motor Vehicle Agreement also have stalled. (Click here to know why)  $\n$
- Connectivity The SAARC Visa Exemption Scheme allows only certain categories of dignitaries to be exempt from visas.

∖n

• Ordinary citizens are excluded from accessing unimpeded travel in the region.

\n

- Free movement of people between India and Pakistan is not that easy.  $\slash n$
- It is even difficult to a get visa for citizens of other SAARC countries who have visited either India or Pakistan before and now wish to travel to the other.

\n

- Poor infrastructure in SAARC countries also plagues connectivity.  $\nphin$

\n\n

What lessons do ASEAN hold for SAARC?

\n\n

∖n

• Mandates - ASEAN, in its first two decades, focussed on a limited range of issues.

\n

- Only after securing them, it expanded its mandate over time.  $\ensuremath{\sc n}$
- Resultantly, it now deliberates on varied issues such as climate change, disaster management, counterterrorism, drugs and human trafficking, etc.  $\n$
- Cooperation ASEAN was able to ensure its sustainability by amicably resolving the disputes and adopting peaceful mechanisms to mitigate opposing claims.

\n

• Trade - Trade in ASEAN has grown rapidly.

\n

- It has focussed on promoting rapid economic growth and modernisation.  $\slash n$
- It has created the ASEAN Comprehensive Investment Agreement (ACIA) for facilitating trade.
- This ensures liberalisation and protection of cross-border investments operations, together with best practices for the treatment of foreign investors and investments.
- Connectivity ASEAN nations are planning to waive entry requirements amongst the member states.

\n

- A feasibility study has been conducted on the development of a rail link from Singapore to Kunming in southern China.  $\n$
- This boosts intraregional trade and people-to-people connectivity.  $\n$
- Projects aimed at promoting the entire region as a tourist destination have also been undertaken.
  \n

\n\n

What lies ahead for SAARC?

\n\n

\n

• SAARC countries should avoid building sub-regional ties at the cost of jeopardising the regional vision for unity.

\n

• E.g. Attempting to isolate Pakistan by forming sub-regional initiatives like the BIMSTEC.

∖n

 Bilateral power struggle and animosity should not come in the way of keeping open the channels of engagement.

\n\n

Quick Facts

\n\n

SAARC

\n\n

\n

• The South Asian Association for Regional Cooperation (SAARC) was established with the signing of the SAARC Charter in Dhaka on 8 December 1985.

\n

 SAARC comprises of eight Member States who are Afghanistan, Bangladesh, Bhutan, India, Maldives, Nepal, Pakistan and Sri Lanka.
\n

\n\n

ASEAN

\n\n

∖n

- The Association of Southeast Asian Nations (ASEAN) was established in 1967 in Bangkok, Thailand.
  - \n
- It came in with the signing of the ASEAN Declaration (Bangkok Declaration) by the founding members namely Indonesia, Malaysia, Philippines, Singapore and Thailand.

\n

• Brunei Darussalam, Viet Nam, Lao PDR, Myanmar, and Cambodia joined in the course of time.

\n

\n\n

ASEAN Comprehensive Investment Agreement

\n\n

∖n

• ACIA was adopted in 2009 in the context of an integrated economic community.

\n

 $\bullet$  It was envisioned as ASEAN's instrument to create a free and open investment environment to increase global competition and enhance the attractiveness of ASEAN as a single investment destination  $\n$
