Marawi Seige

Why in news?

\n\n

The city of Marawi has been engulfed by a deadly, ongoing siege since late May.

\n\n

What is the reason for conflict?

\n\n

\n

- Marawi City, is the capital and the largest city of the province of Lanao del Sur on the island of Mindanao in the Philippines.

\n

- Marawi siege started in May 2017 when Philippine government security forces began to take on heavily armed militants linked to the Islamic State.

\n

- Militants also include the Maute and Abu Sayyaf Salafi jihadist groups.

\n

- The siege is also aimed to capture or kill Isnilon Hapilon.

\n

- Hapilon is the leader of the Abu Sayyaf Islamist group who was named emir of the “Caliphate” in Southeast Asia by IS head Abu Bakr al-Baghdadi in 2016.

\n

- Philippine President declared martial law across the island for 60 days.

\n

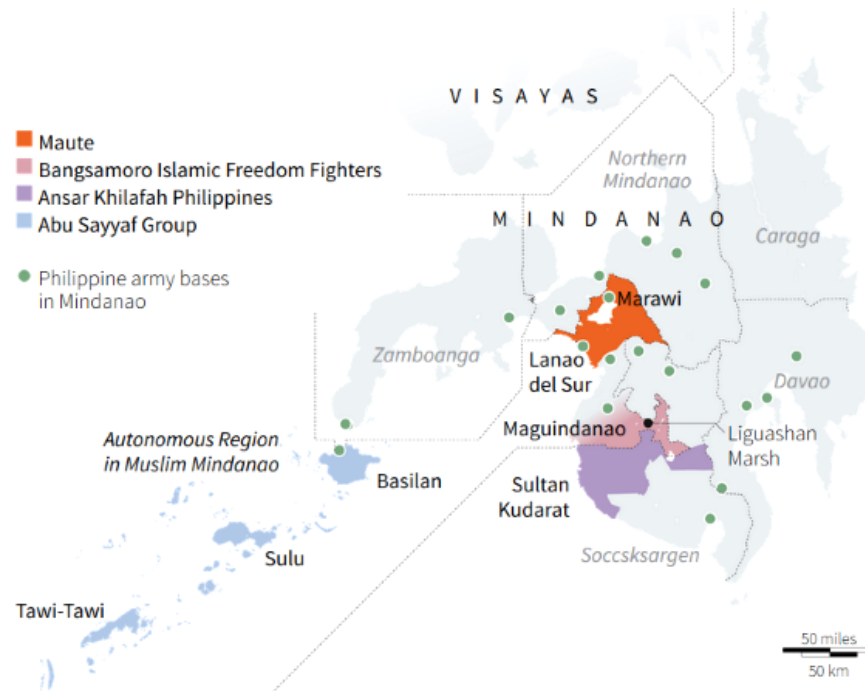

- Some blame the political leadership for ignoring the rise of the IS. e.g Philippine President rejected a ceasefire offer from the Maute group.

\n

- This group is on the front lines in the fight against the Philippine military in Marawi.

\n

\n\n

\n\n

What is the present situation?

\n\n

- \n
- The death toll is estimated to be above 300.
- \n
- Over 200,000 residents have fled what has effectively become an urban battlefield.
- \n
- U.S' military advisers and intelligence analysts have been deployed to aid Philippines.
- \n
- Rebels still control key areas.
- \n
- Many civilians remain in the area, complicating any planned government assault.
- \n

\n\n

What is the significance?

\n\n

- \n
- IS jihadist have set Singapore as a target in their publications and videos.
- \n
- Malaysia faced its first IS attack when a grenade injured eight people at a nightclub near Kuala Lumpur.

\n

- As the world's largest Muslim-majority country, Indonesia is concerned that IS members could easily infiltrate.

\n

- So the present war has political significance throughout the region and beyond.

\n

- It is also seen as a move by Mr. Duterte's to divert attention beyond the infamous brutal drug war that his government has waged.

\n

- Nevertheless, now Mr. Duterte is aiming to bring the battle to a quick, decisive end, and if necessary, to resume negotiations with some groups.

\n

- Tackling the humanitarian crisis created by this conflict depends on these negotiations and on relief efforts.

\n

- Mindanao has been rocked by armed insurgency for years. So to prevent future crisis the long neglect of Mindanao should be ended.
