What is the procedure to remove a judge of Supreme Court/High Court?

\n\n

- \n
 - Article 124 (4) of the Constitution stipulates that a minimum of 50 Rajya Sabha members or 100 members from the Lok Sabha are required as signatories to initiate impeachment.
 - \n
 - The next step in the process is for the Vice President to constitute a three-member committee under the 1968 Judges (Inquiry) Act.
 - \n
 - The committee generally consists of a sitting Supreme Court judge and two High Court Chief Justices.
 - \n
 - This is done in consultation with the Chief Justice of India.
 - \n
 - The committee will function like a trial court, examining the accusations and will advise in favour or against the judge's removal.
 - \n
 - The committee's decision will then be placed in both Houses of Parliament for a vote.
 - \n
 - It would require a two-third majority of MPs present voting in favour of the motion in the same session, or an absolute majority of a joint session, for the judge to be removed.
