Capping of Orthopaedic implants price

\n\n

\n

- National Pharmaceutical Pricing Authority (NPPA) has started working on capping the prices of orthopaedic implant.

\n

- An orthopaedic implant is a medical device manufactured to replace a missing joint or bone or to support a damaged bone.

\n

- It is mainly fabricated using stainless steel and titanium alloys for strength and the plastic coating that is done on it acts as an artificial cartilage.

\n

- The similar capping of price was previously carried out for cardiac stents.

\n

- The prices are capped to make it more accessible to patients and reducing the out of pocket expenditure.

\n

- NPPA is an executive body under the Ministry of Chemicals and Fertilizers controls the price of pharmaceutical drugs in India.

\n

- It renders advice to the government in the matters of drug policies and pricing.

Marginal Cost of Funds-Based Lending Rate (MCLR)

\n\n

\n

- RBI has constituted an internal group to review the working of MCLR system.

\n

- The MCLR was introduced in April 2016, replacing the existing base rate system.

\n

- MCLR refers to the minimum interest rate of a bank below which it cannot lend, except in some cases allowed by the RBI.

\n

- Prior to MCLR system, different banks were following different methodology for calculation of base rate, either on the basis of average cost of funds or marginal cost of funds or blended cost of funds.

\n

- MCLR's method is largely determined by marginal cost of funds and especially by deposit rates and repo rates.

\n

- It takes into consideration in repo rates change and transmit it into bank's lending rates.

\n

- The MCLR, the internal benchmark lending rates, have to be revised monthly.
