Dhangar Community in Maharashtra

The Dhangar community's demand for ST status has been dismissed.

- Dhangars - They are large cluster of pastoral groups and they live mostly in Western Maharashtra and Marathwada.
- Population - In Maharashtra, they are estimated to range from 4 to 12% of the total population (unofficially estimate).
- Reservation status - In Maharashtra, there is an exclusive quota of 3.5% under a separate category called NT (No Tribe).
- In central list, they are recognised as Other Backward Classes (OBC) community.
- Demand for ST status - It started in 1955, when there was no reservation for them either in the state or at the Centre.

click here to know about 'Inclusion procedure in ST list'.

- Reason for demand - Better constitutional safeguards to SC and ST than to OBCs.

Article 340 directs the President to constitute a commission to identify backward communities and make recommendations for their upliftment.

- Discretion of executive government in implementing welfare activities for OBC
 - The 1st BC commission's (Kaka Kelkar) report came in 1955, whose recommendations were never implemented.
 - The 2nd BC Commission's (Mandal) report came in 1980 whose recommendations were implemented partially only in 1990.

Historical background of Dhangar

- Economic activity - British identified 23 subgroups of the Dhangars, many specialising in livestock activities.
- While mostly settled as agriculturalist, some within the cluster were nomadic.
 - The Dange Dhangars herd buffaloes in high-rainfall forest tracts of the Western Ghats.
- Social status - British recognised them as a tribe for their nomadic nature and lower status in Maharashtra.
- However, few were privileged and even have royal antecedents.
 - Ahilyabai Holkar, the queen who reigned the Malwa region in the 18th century was a Dhangar.

National Policy on Child Labour - An Assessment

Recently, a detailed report on the implementation of the Centre's policy on child labour was tabled in Parliament.

Based on the recommendations of Gurupadaswamy Committee, the Child Labour (Prohibition & Regulation) Act was enacted in 1986 and the National Policy on Child Labour was declared in August, 1987.

- Prepared by - The Parliamentary Standing Committee on Labour.
- Findings - The number of working children has decreased from 1.26 crore (2001 census) to 1.01 crore (2011 census) and has decreased from 57.79 lakh (2001 census) to 43.53 lakh (2011 census) in the age group of 5-14 years.
- It is practically not possible to meet the international commitment to eliminate child labour by 2025.
- Recommendation - Improve coordination between various Ministries of the centre and the states.
- Improve data collection - Data on children between 14 to 18 years be collected during the next census exercise.
 - Ministry of Labour & Employment to conduct periodic survey particularly in urban areas to identify child labours.
 - Centre can direct states to conduct surveys along with their suggestions to address the problem.
- Examine various child welfare acts - To reduce any ambiguity or delay in securing justice for aggrieved children by rectifying the
 - Discrepancies in criteria of determining age of the child and the nature of offence as cognisable/non-cognisable

Child and Adolescent Labour (Prohibition and Regulation) Act, 1986 and Juvenile Justice (Care and Protection of Children) Act, 2015 are important child welfare acts.

- Award stricter punishments - Like cancellation of license, attachment of property, etc., and fix the accountability on the principal employer and traffickers.

Religious character of a place of worship

Recently, Allahabad High Court said that the religious character of a place of worship can be decided only in a trial.

- Gyanvapi case – The Hindu plaintiffs claim that the entire area, including the Gyanvapi mosque site, belonged to a temple of Swayambhu Lord Adi Vishweshwar.

A plaintiff is a person who starts a legal action against somebody in a court of law.

- They said the temple was brought down by the 'Farman of Emperor Aurangzeb in the year 1669', much before the commencement of the 1991 Act.

Places of Worship Act, 1991 mandates that the religious identity of a place of worship, as it existed on August 15, 1947, should be retained except Ayodhya.

- Court order - 1991 Act is not an absolute bar on litigants from approaching courts to define the religious character by referring to Sub-section (3) (d) of Section 4.
- A place of worship cannot have a dual religious character at the same time, rather it can be either a temple or a mosque.
- Religious character can only be determined in a trial, based on documentary and oral evidence, on a case-to-case basis.
- Once a temple always a temple is a judicially recognised principle of law.
- The religious character of Swayambhu deity cannot be lost, not even by destruction.
