

Representation of the People (Amendment) Bill, 2017 - Proxy Voting

Why in news?

\n\n

\n

- Lok Sabha recently passed the Representation of the People (Amendment) Bill, 2017, to allow NRIs to use proxies to cast votes on their behalf.

\n

\n\n

How did the Bill come about?

\n\n

\n

- A 12-member committee was set up in 2014 to study mainly three options for voting by NRIs (non-resident Indians).
- These include voting by post, voting at an Indian mission abroad and online voting.
- The committee ruled out online polling as this could compromise “secrecy of voting”.
- It also ruled out voting at Indian missions abroad as they do not have the resources to organise polling.
- In 2015, the panel finally recommended that NRIs be given the “additional alternative options of e-postal ballot and proxy voting”.
- This is apart from the option of casting their vote in person.
- E-postal ballot is a ballot paper that is sent to the voter electronically and returned to the returning officer by post.

\n

- The Law Ministry accepted the recommendation on proxy voting and the Cabinet passed the proposal to amend the law.
- \n

\n\n

What does the Bill aim for?

\n\n

- \n
- The Representation of the People (Amendment) Bill, 2017 proposes to amend the Registration of Electors Rules, 1960.
- \n
- It stipulates the physical presence of the overseas electors in the respective polling station.
- \n
- This is a limitation for overseas electors in exercising their franchise.
- \n
- Notably, India's diaspora population, being 16 million, is the largest in the world.
- \n
- But the registration of NRI voters has been relatively lower than this.
- \n
- The Bill thus aims at extending the facility of proxy voting to Indian voters living abroad.
- \n

\n\n

What is proxy voting?

\n\n

- \n
- Voting in an Indian election can be done in three ways - in person, by post or through a proxy.
- \n
- Under proxy voting, a registered elector can delegate his/her voting power to a representative.
- \n
- This was introduced in 2003 for Lok Sabha and Assemblies elections, but on a limited scale.
- \n
- Only a "classified service voter" is allowed to nominate a proxy to cast vote on his/her behalf.
- \n
- The definition includes members of the armed forces, BSF, CRPF, CISF,

General Engineering Reserve Force and Border Road Organisation.

\n

- A classified service voter can also vote by postal ballot.

\n

\n\n

How does proxy voting work?

\n\n

\n

- Once passed by both houses, Election Commission will amend the Conduct of Election Rules, 1961.

\n

- This will lay down the procedure by which NRIs could nominate their proxies.

\n

- Currently, the classified service voters' proxy has to be a registered voter in the same constituency.

\n

- The proxy is appointed through Form 13F, signed by the voter and the appointed proxy.

\n

- This is done before a first class magistrate or notary or the commanding officer of the service voter.

\n

- The form has to be submitted to the returning officer of the seat before the nomination of candidates closes.

\n

- The proxy will continue to represent the service voter for all polls until the service or the appointment is revoked.

\n

\n\n

What are the practices elsewhere?

\n\n

\n

- UK - A British citizen living abroad can either travel back to vote in person or vote by post.

\n

- He/she can also nominate a proxy but this is subject to eligibility rules.

\n

- This accounts the expatriate's period of stay abroad and the period for which the voter was registered in the UK.

- \n
- Those who were minors at the time of leaving the country can also vote.
- \n
- But this is only as long as their parent or guardian was registered to vote in the UK.
- \n
- US - Expatriates can vote for federal office candidates in primary and general elections.
- \n
- This is, notably, irrespective of how long they have been living abroad.
- \n
- Once registered, an overseas American voter will receive a ballot paper by email, fax, or download, depending on the US state.
- \n
- This has to be returned the same way as received.
- \n

\n\n

\n\n

Source: Indian Express

\n

IAS PARLIAMENT
Information is Empowering
A Shankar IAS Academy Initiative