Yes, Participation of China in CPTPP will change regional balance in Asia & it can lead to a great political success of China by blocking Taiwan from entering into FTA.

* CPTPP is signed with 11 countries like Canada, Japan, Australia etc by US among its strategic allies by TPP under Obama administration

MOST EFFECTIVE:- Unlike RPEC, ASEAN TPP, CPTPP is much more high strategic efficiency because of the geo-strategical control over trade across the Asia-specific zone

CHINA CAN EXHIBIT TRADE RELATIONSHIPS:-

* It can become member of CPTPP it can enter into FTA's with medium/ middle ~~power~~ power groups like Japan, Australia, Canada

* It can target its relationship with yet another big strategic partner UK

showing interest to join CPTPP

★ POLITICAL STRENGTH: China can block Taiwan entering into FTA. It can soon control the economic cooperation with Indonesia, Malaysia & other by diving across the south.

★ TRADE DRIVE :- US exit under Trump has gives a chance to china of taking the leadership take over the trade over Indo-Pacific which can shackle the economic cooperation by its growing power ★ AREAS TRICKY FOR CHINA :- There might some tricky area for china to deal with a Investor State problems, member disputes, e-commerce rules, competition policies affecting state own enterprises.

CONCLUSION :-

- ★ Gaining huge access of trade relations in Indo Pacific region
- ★ Entering FTA's into larger markets
- ★ Blocking Taiwan
- ★ Absence of US place can be taken over by china
- ★ Gaining political, strategical, economical ambitions growth
