Current Geo-political events demand a reorientation of Indian foreign policy. Do you agree this view? Comment. (10m)

Recently Ukraine & Russian war, standoff from China, and also for neighbour worries changes the Indian foreign policy in while

Changes in Indian foreign policy Causes for reorientation in foreign policy

① Non-alignment nature of India for standing in politically neutral

① Chinese factor in neighbouring countries need changes in foreign policy

(eg) Bangladesh, Pakistan in China's belt and road initiative.

② New version of non-alignment because of Ukraine - Russian war.

② India abstaining from voting against Russia and it also thanked Ukraine for safe rescue of Indian student

③ For economic needs - India Needs oil, defense from Russia.

↳ It goes beyond sanction

~~India~~

④ Forming regional groups. like RCEP, IPEF for not being isolated from regional members.

Hence, current geo-political events completely changed the mindset of Indian policy maker to make solution for today's problem rather than old strategy.
