

India's Relation with the Gulf countries have been successful & are shaped by various factors. Elaborate.

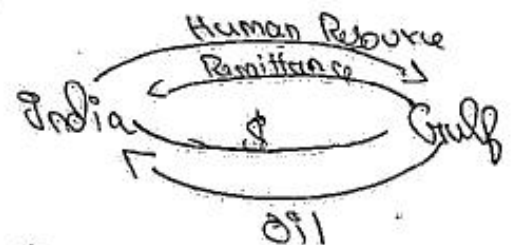

From time immemorial India & the Arab countries had a bright trade the trade was minimal since the Portuguese & it has now reclaimed its rightful place in independent India.

Gulf countries consist of numerous middle eastern countries where India has both Economic & Political Interest

India & Gulf survive by a co-relation of mutual transfer of Goods & Services (ie)

→ India being the largest

Remittance Receiving country half of India's Remittance is from Gulf Region.

→ Factors of Indo-Gulf Relation:

↳ Geographical: Located at Strategic points like

Strait of Hormuz

Strait of Bab-el-mandeb

↳ New Economic partnership with UAE

↳ Non-alignment in global politics etc.

↳ Leader's of India's political will towards them

(ii) Indo-gulf diplomatic Relations is now at the highest of history & is yet expected to raise more & more.

Although with the recent controversial ~~relation~~ of Political Accusations between the Gulf nations & India

Indo-gulf Relation is beneficial for both sides

& as being strong as ever, expected to be strongest in the upcoming future too.
