

2 Both India and China have to work out a comprehensive
1 solution to prevent sporadic conflict along border. Discuss.

India and China recently disengaged their troops from the Pottery Point - 15 in the Changra Hot Springs area. India had reiterated that normal ties are possible only when there is peace at the border.

Five points of agreement

- ① Abide by the existing protocols and agreements
- ② Develop new confidence building measures
- ③ Special dialogue through special representative mechanism
- ④ Current issue is not in interest of either side
- ⑤ Guidance from the series of consensus of the leaders.

Given that there were clashes in Doklam 2017, Gaulwan 2020 and now in the line of actual control region.

Towards comprehensive solution

① Using multilateral forums such as the G-20 and Shanghai Co-operation Organisation, BRICS cannot be leveraged to work out differences. In the recent G-20 Summit India and China did not exchange on border dispute which was a missed opportunity.

② China retaliates ~~at~~ at border when we engage strongly in the Indo-Pacific and with Quad.. China must respect our sovereignty by considering our views on China Pakistan Economic Corridor and Wahab Corridor.

③ Translocate in trade as our trade deficit reached $1 trillion with China.

The Sino-Indian relations is vital relationship of the century. Easing disputes is crucial to the stability of entire South and East Asia.
