

- Automatic facial recognition system uses Artificial Intelligence for facial recognition
- This Artificial Intelligence is given to CCTV cameras present on road and govt and private buildings etc.
- Information technology Act 2008 provides a framework to provide digital tape as evidence in the courts.
- Facial recognition system reduces the crimes that are happening in the country

- This graph shows the decline in trend in the crime from past few decades per district.
- This was possible due to the utilization of technology in Judicial System.
- More encouragement has to be made by the govt to implement technology in the Criminal law.

- Article 50 (a) of constitution states that the public has to update itself with the upcoming technology for the development of the state.
- India has been the last
- India has been kept itself in back position in implementing technologies in crime.
- More encouragement has to be given to the govt by the public to implement this kind of technologies in criminal law.
- DNA technology bill has to be amended so that it does not affect the privacy of the public.