

1. The inclusion of word Fraternity in Preamble is of historic importance and contemporary relevance. Discuss

The word Fraternity is included in the preamble of Indian Constitution through follow from French constitution post 1947, and it does not originally mentioned in Objective Resolution of 1946.

Constitutional provisions:

1. Adopted from French constitution
2. Means dignity of the individual, and development of one self and nation as a whole

Historic importance:

1. More importance required for the unity of nation

2. The unity of nations revolves around dignity of nation and people.
3. Thus the assembly than forecasted the real time situation for the unification and development of presidencies and princely States

Contemporary Relevance:

1. Present time requires development of one's life for nation upliftment for globalisation
2. So the Nations foreign policy is shaped by the dignity of nation and people.
3. Fraternity pays high Human Development Index and thus promotes India's status at global scenario.

Human Development Index: (HDI)

1. Mentions standards of living which shows the productive relevance of India's fraternity below 150 Ranks at Global

Thus the inclusion of fraternity is a great importance in both shaping the nation at historic initial stages and made it to the best nation among the world at contemporary times.