TARGET 2021

INTERNATIONAL ORGANIZATIONS

(UPTO JULY 2021)

1. UNITED NATIONS & ITS ORGANS

- It is an international organization founded in 1945 after the World War II.
- Its charter was signed in San Francisco on June 26, 1945 and came into existence on October 24, 1945 after 51 countries have signed the charter.
- Its predecessor, the League of Nations, created by the Treaty of Versailles in 1919 was disbanded in 1946.
- Its mission is to maintain international peace and security, developing friendly relations among nations and promoting social progress, better living standards and human rights.
 1. HQ - New York
 2. Official Languages - Arabic, Chinese, English, French, Spanish, Russian
 3. Members - 193 (Latest Member South Sudan)
 4. Secretary General - Antonio Guterres (Portugal)
- UN System is made up of the
 1. Main Organs established by the Charter of the United Nations,
 2. Specialized agencies provided for in Article 57 of the Charter &
 3. Funds & Programmes established by the General Assembly under its authority derived from Article 22 of the Charter.

MAIN ORGANS

1.1 UN-General Assembly

- It is the main deliberative organ and composed of all member states, each of which has one vote.
- The mandate of UNGA is to discuss, debate, and make recommendations on subjects pertaining to international peace and security, including development, disarmament, human rights, international law, and the peaceful arbitration of disputes between nations.
- It considers reports from the other four organs of the United Nations, assesses the financial situations of member states, and approves the UN budget, its most concrete role.
- Sessions- The assembly meets in Regular session (annually from Sep to Dec), Special session and Emergency Special Session (within 24 hours) at the request of UN security council or majority of members or one-member state if the majority of states concur.
- Appointments by UNGA- It appoints Secretary General of UN based on the recommendations given by Security Council.
- It elects non-Permanent members in Security Council and Members for Social and Economic Council.
- Along with Security Council, it elects Judges to International Court of Justice.
- Membership -There are 193 UN member states, each with a vote in the General Assembly.
- The assembly's president changes with each annual session and is elected by the body itself.
- The membership can be contentious. Taiwan has been denied UN membership for more than two decades due to objections from China. Palestine's status has also been controversial.

- At the 2012 General Assembly passed a resolution to upgrade Palestine from a non-member observer entity to non-member observer state.
- Palestine and Vatican City are the United Nations' two non-member observer states, which have the right to speak at assembly meetings but cannot vote on resolutions.
- Assembly Actions - Decision on important questions such as those on peace and security, UN budget, admission, suspension and expulsion of members to various organs of UN requires special majority.
- Make recommendations on any matters within the scope of the UN, except matters of peace and security that are under consideration by the Security Council.
- In 1948, it promulgated the Universal Declaration of Human Rights, which contained 30 articles outlining global standards for human rights.
- In 1950, it initiated "Uniting for Peace" resolution which states that if UNSC fails to exercise its primary responsibility" for maintaining international peace and security, UNGA should take up the matter itself and urge collective action.
- In 2000, it set forth the Millennium Development Goals (MDG), a time bound and measurable targets for reducing poverty, halting the spread of HIV/AIDS, and improving access to primary education followed by Sustainable Development Goals (SDG).
- It has the power to censure states for violating UN Charter principles.
- In 2012, UNGA voted to denounce the Syrian government for atrocities since the start of the Syrian uprising in March 2011.
- In 2014, Crimea's referendum to leave Ukraine and join Russia was held invalid by the UNGA by adopting a nonbinding resolution. It also held that Russia's annexation of Crimea is illegal.
- UN budget- United Nation is funded by its member states through compulsory and voluntary contributions.
- The size of each state's compulsory contribution depends mainly on its economic strength, though its state of development and debt situation are also considered.
- Member countries can make voluntary contribution to UNESCO, WHO, UN Programmes and Funds such as Office of the UN High Commissioner for Refugees (UNHCR) and the UN Children's Fund (UNICEF).

Adoption of Resolution

- Resolution in GA can be adopted in two ways i.e reaching consensus among member states and by voting on the resolution.
- Consensus- All member states have agreed to adopt the text of a draft resolution without taking a vote.
- Consensus is not reached, even if just one Member State requests a vote.
- It is important to note that consensus does not mean that all Member States agree on every word in the draft resolution and they still have reservation about certain parts.
- Thus, the viewpoint of every member country is taken into consideration. This process is inclusive in nature.
- Voting -It need to get a simple majority to agree on the text of a resolution.
- There is no need to care about the perspectives of the minority who disagree.
- Those countries that did not vote in favour of a resolution on a particular agenda item will be less likely to implement the actions on an agenda item that are recommended in a resolution, hence it is divisive.

Universal Declaration on Human rights

- It was adopted by the General Assembly in 1948.
- The Declaration consists of 30 articles affirming an individual's rights which, although not legally binding in themselves, have been elaborated in subsequent international treaties, economic transfers, regional human rights instruments, national constitutions, and other laws.
- The Declaration was the first step in the process of formulating the International Bill of Human Rights, which was completed in 1966, and came into force in 1976 after a sufficient number of countries had ratified them.

- India is the signatory of UDHR.

International Day against Nuclear Tests

- International Day against Nuclear Tests was observed on 29 August.
- 2010 marked the inaugural commemoration of the International Day against Nuclear Tests.
- Resolution 64/35 of UNGA calls for increasing awareness and education “about the effects of nuclear weapon test explosions or any other nuclear explosions and the need for their cessation as one of the means of achieving the goal of a nuclear-weapon-free world.”
- The resolution was initiated by Kazakhstan with a view to commemorating the closure of the Semipalatinsk Nuclear Test site on 29 August 1991.

Advisory Committee on Administrative and Budgetary Questions (UN ACABQ)

- It is a subsidiary organ of the General Assembly.
- It consists of 16 members appointed by the Assembly in their individual capacity.
- It ensures that fund contributions to the UN system are put to good effect and that mandates are properly funded.
- UN General Assembly appoints members of the Advisory Committee.
- Members are selected on the basis of broad geographical representation, personal qualifications and experience.
- The major functions of the Advisory Committee are
 1. To examine and report on the budget submitted by the Secretary-General to the General Assembly
 2. To advise the General Assembly concerning any administrative and budgetary matters referred to it.
- Recently Indian diplomat Vidisha Maitra was elected as a member to the Assembly for a three-year term beginning January 1, 2021.

Recent Developments

- UNGA held a first ever high-level meeting on the fight against Tuberculosis, under the theme “United to end Tuberculosis: an urgent global response to a global epidemic”.
- The declaration marks the endorsement of the Resolution by all Member States of the UN.
- India has pledged to eliminate the disease five years before the UN Development Goal of 2030.
- Venezuela and Libya have been suspended from voting in the UN General Assembly for the third time in 3 years because of millions of dollars in unpaid dues to the world body.

1.2 United Nations Security Council

- It has primary responsibility for the maintenance of international peace and security.
- The council has 15 members: 5 Permanent - US, UK, Russia, France & China and 10 members elected by the General Assembly for 2-year terms.
- The main criterion for the eligibility is contribution “to the maintenance of international peace and security”, often defined by financial or troop contributions to peacekeeping operations or leadership on matters of regional security.
- Equitable geographical distribution is also taken in to account for membership - African Group (3), Asia-Pacific Group (2), Latin American and Caribbean Group (2), Western European and Others Groups (WEOG)(2)and Eastern European Group (1).
- Arab states are given 1 seat alternately drawn from either Africa’s quota or Asia’s by informal agreement.
- Turkey and Israel, which has never served on the council, is represented in WEOG.

- While other organs of the UN can only make recommendations to member states, the Security Council has the power to make binding decisions on member states.
- All the members have one vote and permanent members have veto power.
- Decisions on procedural matters should have vote of at least 9 of the 15 members and decision on substantive matters require nine votes and the absence of negative vote by any of the 5 permanent members.
- Veto powers of P5 countries have been used most frequently by Russia, blocking more than 100 resolutions since the council's founding.
- Most recently, in 2018, the U.S vetoed a resolution condemning Israel for Palestinian civilian deaths during border protests in Gaza.
- The presidency of the Security Council rotates alphabetically among 15 members every month.
- G4 Nations- 4 countries bids for permanent seats in UNSC. They are Brazil, Germany, India, and Japan.
- Uniting for Consensus (Coffee Club)- These are group of countries who are opposing the expansion of permanent seats in the UNSC under the leadership of Italy.
- Members - Italy, Spain, Malta, San Marino, Pakistan, South Korea, Canada, Mexico, Argentina, Colombia & Turkey.
- Despite drastic changes in geopolitics and international relations the Council has not been reformed yet.

Proposed Reforms in UNSC

- The demands for reform of the UNSC is based on five key issues:
 1. Categories of membership (permanent, non-permanent).
 2. The question of the veto held by the five permanent members.
 3. Regional representation.
 4. The size of an enlarged Council and its working methods.
 5. The relationship between Security Council and General Assembly.
- Notably, any reform of the Security Council would require the agreement of at least two-thirds of UN member states.
- Importantly, the agreement of all the permanent members of the UNSC enjoying the veto right is also required.

India & UNSC

- India recently elected as the non-permanent member to UNSC from the Asia-Pacific Group for a 2-year term beginning January 1, 2021.
- India has already held a non-permanent seat on the UNSC for 7 terms. In total, India has been in the UNSC for 14 years (most recently in 2011-12).
- Mexico, Norway, Kenya and Ireland were also elected as non-permanent members.
- The presidency of the Council is held by each of the members in turn for one month, following the English alphabetical order of the member states' names.
- India will assume the rotating presidency of the Council for the month of August in 2021 and also in 2022.
- India would chair the following three committees of the UNSC.
- India will chair the Counterterrorism Committee in 2022, which coincides with the 75th Anniversary of India's Independence.
- This Committee was formed in 2001 after the 9/11 attack in New York.
- India had chaired this committee in the UNSC in 2011-12.
- Chairing the Taliban Sanctions Committee (1988 Sanctions Committee) will help keep the focus on the presence of terrorists and their sponsors, threatening the peace process in Afghanistan.

- Libya Sanctions Committee implements the sanctions regime, including a two-way arms embargo on Libya, an assets freeze, a travel ban, measures on illicit export of petroleum.

United Nations Mission in South Sudan

- The United Nations Mission in South Sudan (UNMISS) is the newest United Nations peacekeeping mission for the recently independent South Sudan, which became independent on 9 July 2011.
- It was established in 2011 under United Nations Security Council Resolution 1996.
- It is headquartered in the South Sudanese capital of Juba.

ISIL (Da'esh) and Al-Qaida Sanctions Committee

- It was initially established in 1999, pursuant to UN Security Council Resolution 1267.
- The Committee comprises all 15 members of the Security Council and makes its decision by consensus.
- It oversees the sanctions measures imposed by the Security Council.
- It is one of three Security Council committees dealing with counter-terrorism.
- The other two committees are
 1. The Counter-Terrorism Committee established pursuant to Security Council Resolution 1373 (2001),
 2. The Security Council Committee established pursuant to Resolution 1540 (2004).

IGN Framework

- India has said that the UNSC needs inclusive reforms to act effectively.
- India, along with Brazil, Japan and Germany are pressing for urgent reform of the UNSC and for a permanent seat in it.
- For this, in 2008, the UN General Assembly has decided to facilitate the reform process through the Intergovernmental Negotiations (IGN) framework on equitable representation and expansion of the UNSC.
- The UNGA's adoption of a 2015 resolution to allow the IGN on the basis of a framework document generated some enthusiasm.
- But it was dampened by the U.S., Russia and China being opposed to serious reform of the Council. In any case, the exercise has been deferred in view of the pandemic.

UN Secretary-General

- The UNSC approved ninth UN Secretary-General António Guterres for a second term for five more years starting January 1, 2022.
- While there are no term limits applicable to this post, no Secretary-General has so far served more than two terms.
- Selection process - The Secretary-General is appointed by the UN General Assembly (UNGA) on the recommendation of the UNSC.
- The five permanent members of the 15-nation-strong UNSC are the most powerful players in the process of selection of Secretary-General, as any one of them can eliminate a candidature by a veto.
- The 10 elected non-permanent members of which India is currently a part, do not have veto powers. But their backing is still crucial as a candidate requires at least nine out of 15 votes to be recommended for the top job.
- The UN Charter refers to the UN Secretary-General as the "chief administrative officer" of the United Nations.
- The UN Secretary-General shall act in that capacity and perform such other functions as are entrusted to them by the UNSC, UNGA, Economic and Social Council (ECOSOC) and other UN organs.
- S/he is "equal parts diplomat and advocate, civil servant and CEO," and a symbol of UN ideals and a spokesperson for the interests of the world's peoples, in particular the poor and vulnerable among them.
- The Secretary-General's day-to-day work includes

1. Attendance at sessions of United Nations bodies;
2. Consultations with world leaders, government officials, and others;
3. Worldwide travel intended to keep the Secretary-General in touch with the peoples of the UN member states.

1.3 UN Economic & Social Council

- It is the principal organ that guides sustainable development policies and coordinates the activities of several UN units and organisations working on development and social and economic issues.
- It is the principal body for the implementation of internationally agreed development goals.
- It has 54 members, which are elected by the General Assembly for a three-year term.
- Seats in the council are allocated based on geographical representation. 11 of them are allotted to Asian states.
- For the nations to be elected as members of ECOSOC for a three-year term, it needs 2/3rd majority of UN General Assembly votes.
- Each member of the council has one vote and generally voting in the council is by simple majority.
- The president is elected for a one-year term.

India & ECOSOC

- In 2017, UNGA re-elected India to another 3-year term starting from Jan, 2018 (as its previous term was set to expire in 2017).
- India received backing of the Asian and Pacific group of nations and secured 183 of the 188 votes to serve again. In 2018, India got elected to various crucial subsidiary bodies working under ECOSOC such as
 - i. Committee on Non-Governmental Organisations for a term of 2019-2023 and India got the highest number of votes followed by Pakistan,
 - ii. Commission on Population and Development for a term of 2018 – 2021,
 - iii. Commission for social development for a term of 2018-2022,
 - iv. Commission on crime prevention and criminal justice for a term of 2019 – 2021,
 - v. Council to the Executive Board of the United Nations Development Programme (UNDP), United Nations Population Fund (UNFPA), United Nations Office for Project Services (UNOPS) for a term of 2019-2021,
 - vi. Executive Board of the United Nations Entity for Gender Equality and the Empowerment of Women (UN-Women) for a term of 2019-2021.
- Election to committee on NGO is considered as crucial, because it scrutinises the NGOs applying for consultative status with ECOSOC and can recommend or block them.

UN's Commission on Status of Women (UNCSW)

- The CSW is the principal global intergovernmental body exclusively dedicated to the promotion of gender equality and the empowerment of women.
- A functional commission of the ECOSOC, it was established by ECOSOC resolution 11(II) of 21 June 1946.
- It promotes women's rights, highlights the reality of women's lives throughout the world and helps in shaping global standards on gender equality and the empowerment of women.
- 45 member states of the United Nations serve as members of the Commission at any one time.
- Recently, India has been elected as the member of the Commission on Status of Women (CSW), a body of the Economic and Social Council (ECOSOC).
- India will be a member of the prestigious body for four years from 2021 to 2025.

1.4 Secretariat

- It undertakes the day-to-day work of the UN, administering the programmes and policies of the organization.
- It is headed by the Secretary-General, assisted by a staff of international civil servants worldwide.

1.5 International Court of Justice

- It is the principal judicial organ of the United Nations also called the “World Court”.
- It is seated at the Peace Palace, Hague (Netherlands), and the only principal organ of UN to be not located in New York.
- It settles legal disputes between states and gives advisory opinions to the UN and its specialized agencies.
- It hears cases related to war crimes, illegal state interference, ethnic cleansing, and other issues.
- It is presided over by 15 judges elected to 9-year terms by the UNGA and the UNSC from a list of people nominated by the national groups in the Permanent Court of Arbitration.
- A candidate needs to get an absolute majority in both the chambers i.e. the UNGA and the UNSC.
- 5 judges are elected every 3 years to ensure continuity within the court and are eligible for re-election.
- No two judges can be the nationals of the same country.
- Of the 15 judges, the composition is mandated to be as follows - 3 from Africa, 2 from Latin America and the Caribbean, 3 from Asia, 5 from Western Europe and other states and 2 from Eastern Europe
- The President and Vice-President are elected by secret ballot to hold office for 3 years.
- The P5 members of the UNSC always have a judge on the Court. The exception was China, which did not have a judge on the Court from 1967 to 1985 because it did not put forward a candidate.
- Judges may deliver joint judgments or give their own separate opinions.
- The Court settles legal disputes between nations only and not between individuals, organizations and private enterprises in accordance with international law.
- The Court can only hear a dispute when requested to do so by one or more States. It cannot deal with a dispute of its own motion.
- If a country does not wish to take part in a proceeding it does not have to do so, unless required by special treaty provisions. Once a country accepts the Court's jurisdiction, it must comply with its decision.
- Decisions and Advisory Opinions are by majority, and, in the event of an equal division, the President's vote becomes decisive always have a judge on the Court.
- Other existing international thematic courts, such as the International Criminal Court (ICC) are not under the umbrella of the ICJ and it is legally and functionally independent from United Nations.
- India and ICJ - An Indian Justice Dalveer Bhandari was re-elected as a judge to the ICJ.
- India recently won the plea against Pakistan to grant counsellor access to Indian national Kulbushan Jadhav and ICJ has directed to Pakistan to stop carrying out the execution of Jadhav.

Recent Developments

- ICJ has made a ruling on the military excesses on Rohingya in Myanmar against Rohingya Muslims and pinned legal responsibility on Myanmar's government.
- In another case of its advisory opinion on Chagos Islands issue, it stated that the UK Government is “under an obligation” to end its administration of the Chagos Archipelago “as rapidly as possible”
- The Chagos Islands were retained by the UK during negotiations over independence for the Indian Ocean island of Mauritius, which came to fruition in 1968.
- The islands have since been used for defence purposes by the UK and the United States, which established a military base on the island of Diego Garcia.

1.6 Trusteeship Council

- It was formed to provide international supervision for 11 Trust Territories that had been placed under the administration of Member States, and to prepare the territories for self-government and independence.
- By 1994, all Trust Territories had attained self-government or independence, with the last nation being Palau.
- So, UN suspended its operation on 1994, and it continues to exist only on paper.
- By a resolution adopted in May 1994, the Council amended its rules of procedure to drop the obligation to meet annually and agreed to meet as occasion required by its decision or the decision of its President, or at the request of a majority of its members or the General Assembly or the Security Council.
- Its future role and existence remain uncertain.

SPECIALISED AGENCIES

Specialized Agencies are legally independent international organizations with their own rules, membership, organs and financial resources, which were brought into relationship with the United Nations through negotiated agreements.

1.7 World Bank Group

- The World Bank Group (WBG) is a family of five international organizations that make leveraged loans to developing countries.
- The organizations are International Bank for Reconstruction and Development (IBRD), International Development Association (IDA), International Finance Corporation (IFC), Multilateral Investment Guarantee Agency (MIGA) and International Centre for Settlement of Investment Disputes (ICSID).
- UN and World Bank Group - IBRD, IFC and IDA are Specialized Agencies of the UN. ICSID and MIGA are not Specialized Agencies
- While five institutions have their own country membership, governing boards, and articles of agreement, they work as one to serve our partner countries.
- The IBRD and IDA provide loans at preferential rates to member countries, as well as grants to the poorest countries.
- IFC, MIGA, and ICSID focus on strengthening the private sector in developing countries by providing financing, technical assistance, political risk insurance, and settlement of disputes to private enterprises, including financial institutions.
- IFC established in 1956, provides various forms of financing without sovereign guarantees, primarily to the private sector.
- ICSID, established in 1966, works with governments to reduce investment risk.
- MIGA, established in 1988, provides insurance against certain types of risk, including political risk, primarily to the private sector.
- Each member countries in the organisation get voting power according to the shares held in the organisation's capital.
- Governing Bodies -The two main governing bodies are Board of Governors and Board of Directors.
- BOG are appointed by world bank members and meets annually in joint meeting with Board of Governors of IMF.
- There is a separate BOD for IBRD, IDA, IFC and MIGA.
- India is a member of four of the five constituents of the World Bank Group except ICSID.
- India is one of the founder members of IBRD, IDA and IFC.

World Bank

- IBRD and IDA are collectively known as World Bank, that provides loans to countries for capital programs.
- They were created at the 1944 Bretton Woods Conference, along with the International Monetary Fund (IMF).
- It is like a cooperative, made up of 189 member countries.

- These member countries or shareholders, are represented by a Board of Governors (BOG), who are the ultimate policymakers at the World Bank.
- The aim of World Bank is to
 1. End extreme poverty - reducing share of global population that lives in extreme poverty to 3 percent by 2030,
 2. Promote shared prosperity - by increasing the incomes of the poorest 40 percent of people in every country and
 3. Provide sustainable development.
- All decisions of World Bank will be guided to the promotion of foreign investment and international trade and to the facilitation of capital investment.
- Together with the World Health Organization, the World Bank administers the International Health Partnership (IHP+).
- IHP+ is a group of partners committed to improving the health of citizens in developing countries.
- Clean Air Initiative (CAI) is a World Bank initiative to advance innovative ways to improve air quality in cities through partnerships in selected regions of the world by sharing knowledge and experiences.
- Reports - Doing Business Report, Global Economic Prospects, Global Financial Development Report, International Debt Statistics, World Development Report, World Development Indicators, Poverty and Shared Prosperity.

International Bank for Reconstruction & Development

- IBRD is a global development cooperative owned by 189-member countries and it is the largest development bank in the world.
- It is headquartered in Washington, D.C.
- It was established in 1944 with the mission of financing the reconstruction of European nations devastated by World War II.
- It supports the World Bank Group's mission by providing loans, guarantees, risk management products, and advisory services to middle-income and creditworthy low-income countries.
- IBRD finances investments across all sectors and provides technical support and expertise at each stage of a project.
- IBRD places special emphasis on supporting lower-middle-income countries as they move up the economic chain, graduating from IDA to become clients of IBRD.
- It will also help coordinating responses to regional and global challenges.
- The Bank's member governments are shareholders which contribute paid-in capital and have the right to vote on its matters.
- In addition to these contributions, the IBRD acquires most of its capital by borrowing on international capital markets through bond issues.
- Each member state of IBRD should also be a member of the International Monetary Fund (IMF) and only members of IBRD are allowed to join other institutions within the Bank (such as IDA).

1.8 International Monetary Fund

- IMF was conceived at a UN conference in Bretton Woods in July 1944.
- The 44 countries at that conference sought to build a framework for economic cooperation to avoid a repetition of the competitive devaluations that had contributed to the Great Depression of the 1930s.
- With the membership of 189 countries, the Fund's mandate was updated in 2012 to include all macroeconomic and financial sector issues that bear on global stability.
- A core responsibility of the IMF is to provide loans to member countries experiencing actual or potential balance of payments problems.

- Unlike development banks, the IMF does not lend for specific projects.
- The SDR is an international reserve asset, created by the IMF in 1969 to supplement its member countries' official reserves.
- Gold remains an important asset in the reserve holdings of several countries, and the IMF is still one of the world's largest official holders of gold.
- Unlike the General Assembly of the United Nations, where each country has one vote, decision making at the IMF was designed to reflect the relative positions of its member countries in the global economy.
- Reports - World economic outlook, Global Financial stability report.

Developments in IMF

- The members of IMF have recently agreed a new deal that would allow to maintain its funding at $ 1 trillion but postponed changes to its voting structure.
- Source of funding in IMF - Quotas are the IMF's main source of financing. Each member of the IMF is assigned a quota, based broadly on its relative position in the world economy.
- Through New Arrangement to Borrow (NAB), a number of member countries and institutions stand ready to lend additional resources to the IMF.
- The NAB constitutes a second line of defense to supplement IMF resources.
- Bilateral Borrowing Agreements serve as a third line of defense after quotas and the NAB.
- Concessional lending and debt relief for low-income countries are financed through separate contribution-based trust funds.
- NAB is a renewable funding mechanism that has existed since 1998 and bilateral borrowings from countries after the 2008 financial crisis.
- Recent Developments - In its new deal, IMF members have decided to extend the bilateral borrowing facility by a year to the end of 2020 and a potential doubling of the NAB.
- But the new deal will leave IMF quotas (the primary source of IMF funds), which determine voting shares, unchanged. Instead, these will be reviewed before the end of 2023.
- This is mainly due to veto power of US which has objected to changing IMF quota.
- IMF quotas are distributed according to a four-pronged formula that considers a member country's GDP, its economic openness, its "economic variability" and international reserves.
- India's quota is 2.76% and China's is 6.41%, while the U.S.'s quota is 17.46 % (translates to a vote share of 16.52%).
- Many of the crucial decision in IMF requires 85% supermajority and US vote share give it unique veto power.

1.9 International Labor Organization

- It was created in 1919 by the Versailles Peace Treaty ending World War I.
- After the demise of the League of Nations, the ILO became the first specialized agency associated with the UN.
- The organization has 187 of the 193 UN member states plus the Cook Islands (a nation in the South Pacific, with political links to New Zealand).
- Its secretariat is in Geneva, Switzerland.
- It is responsible for drawing up and overseeing international labour standards.

Core Conventions of the ILO

The 8 Core Conventions of the ILO (also called fundamental/human rights conventions) are:

1. Forced Labour Convention (No. 29)
2. Abolition of Forced Labour Convention (No.105)

8. Right to Organise and Collective Bargaining Convention (No.98)

Conventions 87 & 98 have not been ratified by India.

- Unlike other United Nations specialized agencies, the International Labour Organization has a tripartite governing structure – representing governments, employers, and workers.
- ILO designates some member countries as nations of “Chief Industrial Importance”.
- The designated nations are Brazil, China, France, Germany, India, Italy, Japan, the Russian Federation, the United Kingdom and the United States.
- In 1988, the international labour conference adopted the “Declaration on Fundamental Principles and Rights at Work”.
- The declaration aims to eliminate all forms of forced or compulsory labour, abolition of child labour and the elimination of discrimination in employment and occupation.
- It publishes Global Wage report.

Recent Developments

- In the International Labour Organization’s (ILO’s) 101-year history for the first time, a labour standard (Convention 182) has been universally ratified.
- This historic moment was made when the Kingdom of Tonga decided to outlaw the worst forms of child labour.
- Convention 182 was adopted in international labour conference, 1999.
- It penalises and prohibits the worst form of child labour. It includes
 1. all forms of slavery including sale and trafficking, debt bondage, serfdom, forced labour, recruitment in armed conflict
 2. prostitution or production of pornography
 3. production and trafficking of drugs etc

- It complements the ILO’s efforts under the Minimum Age Convention 138 of the year 1973.
- Convention 138 prevents the employment of children below a lower age threshold.
- The two instruments on child labour are among the eight core ILO Conventions.

India & ILO

- India is a founder member of the ILO.
- In 2017, India has ratified two key ILO global conventions- Convention 138 and Convention 182.
- Convention 138 calls for the minimum age for employment to be not less than the age of completion of compulsory schooling. In India, it is 14 years according to RTE act.
- Conventions 138 and 182 of the United Nations body leave it to the member-states to determine what constitutes acceptable or unacceptable work for children at different ages.
- Countries which ratify any of the ILO conventions must go through a periodical reporting system every 4 years. The government has to prove they are making progress.
- ILO Governing Body – It is the apex executive body of the ILO and its Chairperson is a position of international repute.
- It meets thrice a year, in March, June and November.
- Functions - It takes decisions on ILO policy, Decides the agenda of the International Labour Conference, Dopts the draft programme and budget of the organisation for submission to the conference.

- Recently, India has assumed the Chairmanship of the Governing Body of ILO.

- Labour & Employment Secretary Apurva Chandra has been elected as the Chairperson of the Governing Body of the ILO for the period October 2020-June 2021.
- An ILO Recommendation is a non-binding instrument which seeks to serve as a guiding principle for national policy process.
- ILO in June, 2015 adopted recommendations regarding “The Employment and Decent Work for Peace and Resilience”.
- The Recommendation provides guidance to member States on the measures to be taken to generate employment and decent work for the purposes of prevention, recovery, peace and resilience with respect to crisis situations arising from conflicts and disasters.
- Each member state of ILO is required to submit the instruments so adopted before the competent authority (the Parliament in case of India). India supported the adoption of Recommendation.
- Accordingly, Union Cabinet has accorded the approval to place the new instrument of recommendation before the parliament. But it does not create any immediate obligation on the parliament.

- UNESCO has also earlier declared a contested shrine in Hebron city as an endangered Palestinian heritage site.
- Even in 1984, U.S. withdrew from the UNESCO, accusing it of favouring the Soviet Union; nevertheless, it rejoined the U.N. body in 2002.

- It is the only UN special agency to have its headquarters in the United Kingdom. It is the first ever international organization devoted exclusively to maritime matters.
- The objective of IMO is the improvement of Maritime safety and the prevention of marine pollution.
- IMO measures cover all aspects of international shipping including ship design, construction, equipment, manning, operation and disposal.
- It covers accidental and operational oil pollution along with different types of pollution by chemicals, goods in packaged form, sewage, garbage and air pollution.
- One of the important committee under IMO is The Maritime Environment Protection Committee which is responsible for coordinating the organization’s activities in prevention and control of pollution of the marine environment from ships.
- The IMO council consists of 40 members in which category A consists of 10 members, category B 10 members and category C 20 members -

- Observer status is granted to qualified non-governmental organisations.

1.14 India & IMO

- India has had the privilege of being elected to and serving the council of the IMO, ever since it started functioning, except for two years during 1983-1984.
- In the 30th session of IMO held in London, India has been re-elected to the council of IMO under “Category B” for two years (2018-2019).
- Ballast water management convention was adopted in IMO in 2004 & came into force in Sep, 2017.
- The convention aims to prevent the spread of harmful aquatic organisms from one region to another.
- It establishes standards and procedures for the management and control of ships' ballast water and sediments.
- All ships in international traffic are required to manage their ballast water and sediments to a certain standard according to the management plan.
- The Bunker convention was adopted in 2001 and came into force in 2008.
- Its aim is to ensure that adequate, prompt, and effective compensation is available to persons who suffer damage caused by oil spills, when carried as fuel in ships' bunkers.
- It applies to damage caused on the territory, including the territorial sea, and in exclusive economic zones of States Parties.
- It is modelled on the International Convention on Civil Liability for Oil Pollution Damage, 1969.
- In India's case, it applies to an Indian vessel, wherever it is situated, and to a foreign flag vessel while it is within Indian jurisdiction.
- By the end of 2017, India was in the advanced stage of ratifying Ballast Water Convention and Bunker Convention.

Ballast Water

- Ballast water is water carried in ships' ballast tanks to improve stability, balance and trim.
- It is taken up or discharged when cargo is unloaded or loaded, or when a ship needs extra stability in foul weather.
- When ships take on ballast water, plants and animals that live in the ocean are also picked up. Discharging this ballast water releases these organisms into new areas where they can become marine pests.

1.15 International Civil Aviation Organization

- It was created after the Chicago convention on International Civil Aviation.
- It became a specialized agency of the United Nations linked to Economic and Social Council (ECOSOC).
- Secretariat - Montreal, Canada.
- It sets standards and regulations necessary for aviation safety, security, efficiency as well as for aviation environmental protection.
- Recently, ICAO introduced a scheme to measure carbon emission, called as “CORSIA - Carbon Offsetting and Reporting Scheme for International Aviation”.

CORSIA

- The CORSIA is a global market-based measure adopted by ICAO.

- It intends to offset annual increases in CO₂ emissions from international civil aviation above 2020 levels.
- A market-based measure is a policy tool that is designed to achieve environmental goals at a lower cost and in a more flexible manner than traditional regulatory measures. e.g Levies, emissions trading systems, and carbon offsetting.
- It relies on the use of emissions units to offset the amount of CO₂ emissions. One emissions unit represents one tonne of CO₂ emissions reduced.
- It compares the total CO₂ emissions for a year (from 2021 onwards) against a predetermined baseline.
- Any international aviation CO₂ emissions that exceed the baseline level should implement offsetting measures.
- It only applies to international flights. Domestic emissions fall under the purview of UNFCCC, and are covered by the Paris Agreement.

1.16 World Meteorological Organization

- WMO was created in 1950 as an intergovernmental organization.
- It became a specialized agency of the United Nations, in 1951, for meteorology (weather and climate), operational hydrology and related geophysical sciences.
- WMO is the UN system's authoritative voice on weather, climate and water.
- Secretariat - Geneva, Switzerland.
- Through its members, WMO provides forecasts and early warnings to nations, which help prevent and mitigate disasters.
- WMO monitors and forecast the transport of chemical and oil spills, forest fires, volcanic ash, haze and nuclear isotopes.
- It also draws world attention to the depletion of the ozone layer.
- The Climate Centre at Indian Meteorological Department, Pune has recently been recognized as the Regional Climate Centre by the World Meteorological Organization (WMO) for providing regional climate services to South Asian countries.

India and WMO

- India has been designated as a nodal centre for preparing flash-flood forecasts by the WMO.
- India will develop a customised model that can issue advance warning of floods in Vietnam, Sri Lanka, Myanmar and Thailand.
- The system is called the Flash Flood Guidance System which aims to provide forecasts 6 hours in advance.
- WMO says flash floods account for 85% of flooding incidents worldwide, causing some 5,000 deaths/year.

- WIPO's predecessor was the United International Bureaux for the Protection of Intellectual Property (BIPRI).
- BIPRI administered two conventions such as the Paris Convention for the Protection of Industrial Property and the Berne Convention for the Protection of Literary and Artistic Works. BIRPI is thus transformed to become WIPO.
- Marrakesh Treaty of WIPO - It is to facilitate access to published works
- for persons who are blind, visually impaired and print disabled.
- India was the first country to sign this treaty.

- EU has recently ratified to ease access to reading material for print-disabled people. With this, the treaty expands to 70 countries.
- The governments that are party to the Marrakesh treaty are obliged to adopt laws authorizing the conversion of books into accessible formats such as braille, e-text, audio and large print by designated organisations.

Berne Convention

- It is an international agreement governing copyright (for protection of literary and artistic works), which was first accepted in Berne, Switzerland, in 1886.

- It is based on three basic principles
 1. principle of national treatment
 2. principle of automatic protection
 3. principle of independence of protection
- It contains a series of provisions determining the minimum protection to be granted, as well as special provisions available to developing countries.

India and WIPO

- Union Cabinet has approved the proposal regarding accession to the WIPO Copyright Treaty and WIPO Performers and Phonograms Treaty.
- The treaty extends coverage of copyright to the internet and digital environment.
- It is seen as a step towards the objective laid in the National Intellectual Property Rights (IPR) Policy, 2016.
- The treaty came to force in 2002 and has been adopted by 96 contracting parties till date.
- It is a Special agreement under Berne Convention.
